ENERGY.—The rebel Governor Brown of Georgia, in the early part of May, issued a call to the rebel Legislature of that State to assemble for the purpose of taking such action as they might deem necessary in view of their forlorn condition. The rebel Governor's call betokened no contrition for his crimes and no desire to yield submission to the United States. President Johnson of course would not entertain the proposition for the traitor Legislature to convene. General Wilson, commanding in Georgia, at the instance of the President sent Brown this explicit letter:

HEADQUARTERS CAVALRY CORPS, M. D. M.,
MACON, Ga., May 9, 1865—2.30 P. M.

SIR:—In pursuance to instructions received this day from E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War, I have the honor to inform you that your telegram of the 7th instant, forwarded by sanction, has been laid before the President of the United States, and the following are his reply and orders:

First—That the collapse in the currency and the great destitution of provisions among the people of Georgia, mentioned in your telegram, have been caused by treason, insurrection and rebellion against the laws of the United States, incited and carried on for the last four years by you and your confederate rebels and traitors, who are alone responsible for all the waste, destitution and want now existing in that State.

Second—What you call the "results which the fortunes of war have imposed upon the people of Georgia," and all the loss and woe they have suffered are charged upon you and your confederate rebels, who have usurped the authority of the State and assumed to act as its Governor and Legislature, made acts treasonable to the United States, and by the means of that usurped authority provoked the war to extremity until compelled by superior force to lay down their arms and accept the result which "the fortunes of war" have imposed upon the people of Georgia as the just penalty of the crime of treason and rebellion.

Third—That the restoration of peace and order cannot be intrusted to rebels and traitors who trampled down the order that has existed more than half a century in Georgia, a great and prosperous State. The persons who incited the war and carried it on at so great a sacrifice to the people of Georgia and of all of the United States, will not be allowed to assemble at the call of their accomplice to act again as Legislature of the State and again usurp its authorities and franchises. Men whose crimes spilled so much blood of their fellow citizens and pressed so much woe upon the people, destroyed the finances, currency and credit of the State and reduced the poor to destitution, will not be allowed to usurp legislative power that might be intended to set on foot fresh acts of treason and rebellion. In calling them together without permission of the President you have perpetrated a fresh crime that will be dealt with accordingly. I am further directed to inform you that the President of the United States will, without delay, exert all lawful powers of his office to relieve the people of Georgia from destitution by delivering them from the bondage of military tyranny which avowed rebels and traitors have long imposed alike upon poor and rich.

The President hopes by restoring peace and order, giving security to life, liberty and property by encouraging trade, arts, manufactures and every species of industry, to restore the financial credit of the State and develope its great resources that the people will soon be able to rejoice under the Constitution and laws of the United States and of their own State in the prosperity and happiness they once had. To all good people who return to their allegiance, liberality will be exercised.

If any person shall presume to answer or acknowledge the call mentioned in your telegram to the President, I am directed to secure his immediate arrest and imprisonment, and hold him subject to the order of the War Department.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your ob't servant,

J. H. WILSON, Brevet Maj.-Gen.

Joseph E. Brown, Milledgeville, Georgia.

After reading the proclamation offering a reward for the capture of Jeff. Davis, a Democrat said: "I'll be —— if I want to pay taxes for the capture of Jeff. Davis." Of course he didn't — It was an "arbitrary arrest," and an "Invasion of the rights of a citizen."

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 1, 1865

The Pacific Railroad

In California and Nevada the Pacific railroad is now exciting more than usual attention. The work of extending the road easterly from Sacramento is being prosecuted this year with more energy than at any former time. Two lines: one by way of Tahoe pass, the other by Placerville and the passes of the Sierra Nevada east of that place are very active rivals. The former known as the Central Pacific, will be completed this season to a point more than sixty miles from Sacramento. The construction of the road over the mountains will be a very difficult and costly work but the great activity with which it is being carried forward promises the completion of this arduous undertaking within one or two years. Once beyond the Sierras the chief barriers will have been passed and the progress of the road through Nevada will be rapid and comparatively easy. When it is finished from Sacramento to Virginia City, a very great section of the Pacific railroad will have been built. We shall then begin to realize that an important part of the work is done, and to anticipate the speedy completion of the great highway which is to unite the East and West, and enrich this coast to a greater extent than all enterprises which are restricted merely to the Pacific States, could do.

We regard it as very certain that the Pacific railroad will be built from California before it can be from Oregon or any other place on this coast. California has a large population, and both that State and Nevada are exhaustless in the precious metals. Northern routes have been surveyed which have their termini on the Columbia river and Puget Sound, but the wealth of this section is limited, compared with that of California, and hence, as we cannot expect to have the great railroad terminate in this quarter, we shall be very anxious to see it built as early as possible, through from St. Louis to Sacramento.

The claim for help from the General Government will be laid with much urgency before the next Congress. In view of the possibility of a foreign war, the Government should aid this great work. If war should grow out of our present complications, the road, of course, could not be built before it will occur. But the present period of peace should be improved so that in case of hostilities hereafter between our Government and a foreign power, communication between all parts of the country would be so ready that any threatened point could be put at once into a posture of defence.

The increased production of wealth which would follow the completion of the road, would render the payment of our National debt vastly easier. The gold we need to discharge this great debt, is in our own mountains, and must be brought out. The people of the East are looking hopefully to the West for the means with which our indebtedness may be paid. The late President foresaw the value of these gold fields in relation to the National debt, and almost the last words he spoke in connection with public affairs, were addressed to the miners of the Pacific slope. The railroad would enhance to an incalculable degree, the facilities for obtaining the precious metals, and if built, the gold product would be sufficiently increased to pay the cost of the work within a very short time.

The aid which it is hoped the Government will furnish, joined with the enterprise of parties who are interested, will, it is thought, cause the road to be built within five years. If the work be undertaken with a will, there is no reason why it should not be completed within that time. The great political controversies and sectional jealousies, which before the war defeated every attempt to accomplish anything for this great National enterprise, are happily settled, and the whole country will now be willing and anxious to promote the work by the employment of all its energies in a plan which, when completed will be so vastly beneficial to all the interests of the Nation.

A BALK.—The California Stage Company's contract for carrying our daily mail to Lincoln California, expired yesterday. Mr. Reeside, the new contractor, has yet made no arrangements for entering upon the performance of his undertaking. Hence no mail leaves this place for the South this morning. The California Stage Company generously offer to carry the mail for a few days longer, but Postmaster Davis is not authorized to deliver it to them now that their contract has terminated. We learn that Mr. Reeside's agent left Sacramento yesterday morning for this place, for the purpose we presume, of taking measures to continue the mail. The mail from California will reach this place for seven days yet but our mails going in that direction are to be stopped for the present. This is very annoying to the people of the whole State. We hope the interruption may be but temporary. A little more activity on the part of the new contractors would have prevented this great inconvenience.

We shall endeavor to send the OREGONIAN to subscribers south with as much promptitude as possible. For a few days the paper will go forward by Express or in charge of the stage driver. The daily mail will be restored in a few days at farthest. Until that time, we promise subscribers to do for them as well as we possibly can.

THE SOUTHERN CHURCHES.—At the outbreak of the rebellion and for a long time previous to it the slavery question had been a source of as much dissension in Church as in State. Several of the leading church denominations had divided or were utterly at variance among their membership on this inevitable question. All the churches in the South argued the divinity of slavery, supported secession and encouraged rebellion. Almost all the former ecclesiastical organizations there are now broken up, and under the influence of the liberal ideas of the North the reconstruction of the churches is beginning. Slavery, the sole cause of contention and separation, is now virtually abolished and the reunion of the churches or rather their reorganization on the principles which all their members North and South, once held in common, is already taking place. The elimination of every element of discord from the powerful and widely extended church organizations of the country, will be very effective in promoting harmony among the people of every State and section and will do much in the way of uniting indissolubly those who were so lately at enmity towards each other.

CONFISCATION.—In New Orleans eight thousand and twenty-eight suits have been instituted for the confiscation of the property of sundry rebels, great and small. Benjamin, Slidell and Jefferson Davis are named with others whose property the United States Marshal advertises for sale. A little while ago the chivalry were going to "wring their war debt out of our hearts." Perhaps they are beginning to realize that there is a slight alteration in the proposed entertainment.

Boise and Owyhee

FROM OUR TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT

THINGS IN THE BOISE BASIN

IDAHO CITY, June 18, 1865.

I remained [illegible] one day in Centreville, which place is the quietest, and in proportion to its population, appears to be less productive of gold than any [illegible] the Basin towns. While I was there the miners were at their work. None of the [illegible] woke up [illegible] when the [illegible] town. Then the [illegible] constantly [illegible] laughter [illegible]. Centreville was [illegible] extreme [illegible] from the [illegible] the examination [illegible] business. I was told by merchants was unusually dull and the [illegible] less than was anticipated, but when the creek is worked, that will give permanent [illegible] to a great many men at fair wages and times will necessarily improve. There is a daily stage from Centreville to Hog'em, otherwise called, in polite parlance, Pioneer City.

But the vehicle was making repairs and instead of starting at 4 [illegible], it was late in the evening before we were off. Time hangs rather heavily under such circumstances. The day was cold enough for March and rainy at spells to an uncomfortable degree. There was a good fire in the bar room of the Forest House and some fun in process of transaction out doors. A [illegible] use nearly churned the [illegible] out of its rider to the [illegible] gratification of all the men [illegible] and [illegible] within the city limits, as the process lasted long enough to afford a view to all the inhabitants of the burg. As the excitement of that died away there came a black ram upon the scene, indifferently and independently thrusting his presence into the little knots of talkers with whom he appeared to be an old acquaintance and rather a sort pet. Many a trick was attempted at his expense, in which he came out the best. Butting was his forte and one fellow about three sheets in the wind in trying to make free with "Dick," was finally caught by a butt from the rear that sent him sprawling to the infinite delight of an extensive audience. Just at dark, the stage was ready and we left for Pioneer City, the last view of Centreville showing the crowd flying in all directions, to avoid a desperate charge from the black ram.

HOG'EM, ALIAS PIONEER CITY.

I have been told by an old friend that in the early days of the Basin, he arrived at a point up Grimes creek where the miners some 15 or 20 in number, had discovered rich prospects and had erected a log or stockade fort for mutual safety. He says that for many miles up and down the creek, in the gulches and up on the bars and hillsides, claims were staked off and recorded to the number of thousands. The few individuals who first arrived had taken up all this ground for themselves and for their numerous friends and relations. Some remonstrance was made, and after ineffectual attempts to secure peaceable possession of good claims for themselves, the newly arrived removed down the creek to Centreville, indignantly naming the stockade five miles above, as Fort Hog'em, which euphonious title the locality familiarly bears to day. So at about 8 o'clock of a cold cloudy evening, we started to ride six miles to Hog'em and of course, at the first little pitch of a hill, the brake broke and we rattled down with a velocity that would have been delightful, had the road not been sidling and the stumps, logs and prospect holes frequent alongside of it. Our driver was a near kin to John, for he handled the whip and lines with unsurpassed skill, and made the machine run fast and furiously. Or at least it seemed so to me, as in the half visible night we climbed up hill and dashed down, after having to tie the wheels with ropes, as we prepared to send down some more than ordinary steep [illegible]. Leaving the hills at last in safety, we came down to the creek again, and could count many blazing lights along it, where the miners were busily engaged using the abundant water on bars and gulches during the night, using a relief of hands and working their claims both night and day.

After some difficulty, my landlord at the stage house fixed me up a bed, and after warming up at a neighboring saloon by a friendly fire I soon found it very comfortable. Hog'em is a rich mining camp where, wonderful to relate, there seems to be more successful mining going on than ever before. I was told that the yield of gold was actually in excess this spring, of any previous year. I traveled over the neighboring country, saw claims selling for $4,000 cash, and was forced to conclude that for many years to come, Hog'em will be a mining camp of great importance.—There is not much difference in the sizes of Placerville, Centerville and Pioneer City, as the Post Masters call it, though Placerville may be somewhat the largest place of the three.

During my stay in Hogem it alternately rained or snowed by turns, and the store of Messrs Britton & Co, with its capacious fire place and rousing fire proved as delightful as in December. June is a very pretty month in the almanac, &c, but the mountains fail occasionally to pay even a shadow of respect to it. Miners were preparing to work the creeks, but the bar opposite the town extending for miles is being worked in places as water can be procured and is proving very rich. I had no idea of the extent of these diggings until visiting them. The hills, gulches, bars and creeks all afford good pay, and in many places the very hill tops show rich dirt. The richest diggings are of course worked the first, as in all countries, but ten years from now will see a large number of men working the placers of the Boise Basin with reasonable reward for their labor. Hogem is one of the best points in the Basin, though Grimes Creek is being mined successfully for fifteen miles. On the morning of June 18th I was greeted with a snow storm as I went forth for the day. The hills around were mingled snow and green, the streets were sloppy and the air drove me quickly to the hospitable fire place mentioned above, where our old friend Henry M. Ellsworth is a partner, to whom I am under obligations for kind acts and a warm corner by the chimney.

QUARTZ ABOUT HOGEM.

I found considerable interest manifested by different persons in quartz ledges located on the mountains from Centreville to ten miles above town on Grimes creek. That same snowy day about day break, or not long after, who should I meet in the street at H[illegible] but my friend Humason from the Dalles, afflicted with such a severe attack of quartz on the brain that he was oblivious to wind and weather and hardly aware that it was snowing at the time. It seems that last year Mr. Jonathan Jackson, of the Dalles, was prospecting for quartz in this Territory and purchased the principal interest in three ledges, the King, Specimen and Mammoth, with the quartz mill about completed upon the creek near them. Mr. Humason is equally interested with him and from appearances they have a valuable property. They have been unable to work the mill much as yet, owing to the high stage of water in the creek, but have made several runs realizing for [illegible] $[illegible] per ton, for the next run of twenty seven tons $80 35 per ton, and for the run just completed, about $70 per ton. I take pleasure in mentioning this, which is a private enterprise [illegible] Hummason & Co have a mill now passing through this place [illegible] for them at the foundry of A. C. Gibbs & Co [illegible] There are [illegible] and he will have it [illegible] soon. [illegible] have valuable ledges [illegible] and [illegible] from which [illegible] very rich. They are of good width and will soon be tested as the machinery for a mill has just arrived and the building is in process of erection. [illegible] is largely interested. I expect to see the mill when in operation, [illegible] the progress of the company. [illegible] mill near Centreville. [illegible] There are numerous ledges in the vicinity supposed to be valuable.

As Mr. Humason was [illegible] down [illegible] machine, we [illegible] mutually narrating adventures [illegible] [illegible] with him. He arrived at Hogem [illegible] property [illegible] such [illegible] course and spending the [illegible] of daylight hunting for it he finally [illegible] he fortunately [illegible] along and wrapping up in his blankets [illegible] for the night. The next day he [illegible] Hogem a [illegible] hungrier and little wiser than when he left. His recent losses at the Dalles have not abated his ardor and I rather imagine his quartz will pay them off and leave a handsome surplus.

THE TELEGRAPH.—Unfortunately we are still without Eastern news. A dispatch from San Francisco received last evening, states that the Indians on the plains are so troublesome that the line cannot be kept in working order.

The steamer Fidelity lately sunk in Fraser river, has not yet been raised. Three attempts to do so have proved unsuccessful.

NEWS ABOUT THE NEW MINES.—We are permitted to print a portion of a letter from a citizen [illegible] of Walla Walla valley. His letter is dated June 20th. Here is the portion of it which we allude to:

"The excitement relative to [illegible] is still greater than when you left. People are coming from Boise, Eagle creek and other [illegible] this section every day and [illegible] the new diggings. [illegible] left here from the Coeur d'Alene. He gave me a [illegible] of that country. He says the [illegible] but a short time, but the [illegible] of Kootenai, but has a different appearance. It is rough and contains some quartz [illegible] as if it had never been washed. It will be impossible for the farmers of Walla Walla to get hands to harvest their grain if this excitement continues. No stampede has ever [illegible] completely cleared this valley of men, as has the present rush to Coeur d'Alene."

VENERATION WORSHIPPED.—The Illustrated London News thinks that when the passions and animosities of our late war are buried in oblivion no man will receive more respectful attention from all parties or be more firmly established in the love of our whole people than the great General Lee. A phrenological examination of some of these Englishmen would no doubt show that Ideality and Veneration are remarkably developed in them. Lee will always be loathed as a despicable traitor. His military abilities do not atone for, but deepen, his crime. The thousands of our brave soldiers who sleep in a few weedy rood of ground from Gettysburg to Richmond point from their silent and unepitaphed resting places to him as their murderer. Sedgwick and Wadsworth and Reynolds and Reno, and myriads of their compatriots, are his victims, and yet we are asked to forget and dishonor them by yielding a complaisant homage to the lawless traitor who fought against the country they died to save. Patriotic virtue will never cease to execrate the name of Robert E. Lee, or to hold abhorrence to his infamy endlessly throughout the world.

NEVER TO BE DISHONORED.—The Territorial Enterprise, like all good papers, is urging its readers to invest in our National securities. These bonds, it thinks, are so secure that they are to survive the great wreck that is to ensue when Heaven's last thunder shakes the world below. Here is the argument:

Should the earth continue to be the habitation of man until these bonds become due, they will be paid in United States gold coin or its equivalent. The interposition of the fulfillment of the wonders of the Apocalypse alone could prevent the payment of the obligations of the Government, and we are sure that a universal wreck of matter would subject the holders to absolute loss, for the debts contracted in a struggle so holy as the one through which we have just passed should be assumed in Heaven and guaranteed by the ages of eternity.

DEPREDATIONS ABOUT AUBURN.—From several sources we learn that the people in the vicinity of Auburn, and travelers on the way to the mines beyond, are annoyed greatly by robbers and Indians. Great numbers of horses have been stolen and some small parties of men attacked on the road. Much alarm is said to exist in that quarter. The people, it is said, are circulating petitions asking the military authorities to send them a company of cavalry for their protection.

VERY RICH.—Another account from the new mines states that parties there are realizing fabulous sums. A letter in our possession reports that some are making one hundred dollars per day. We do not know whether this is authentic or not. It is said, however, to have come from a trustworthy source.

As all our citizens can see, our city is rising from the ashes of the late fire as a giant, and bids fair to be larger and more substantially built than it was before the fire. The majority of the houses are larger and better, and I understand that there are contracts for some ten or twelve fire proof structures to be erected this summer and some two or three already started—among the latter are those of Messrs. Clark & Dunn, Fitzgerald, and one or two others below Wall street on Main, and I understand there will be two or three brick buildings above Wall. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express office, on the corner of Wall and Main, is up, and will soon be occupied by them, when we will again have the pleasure to see friend Smith mount the bench and hear his melodious voice announce who are the lucky holders of tickets for letters. The Poujade House, on the corner of Commercial and Main, one of the largest structures in the city, will be ready to receive its crowds of visitors soon, and the Montana and City hotels are now under way and will soon be ready to accommodate their numerous visitors.—Idaho World.

NEVADA MINT.—The Carson correspondent of the Territorial Enterprise says that the title to the Mint grounds has at length been settled by subscriptions on the part of citizens there. The extra amount paid to make it perfect was about $1 600. If the appropriation of $100 000 made by Congress some three years since can be reached, there is strong probability that work will be commenced on the building this summer. This sum will naturally go into the pockets of the merchants—consequently no drawback to the prosperity of the place.

As an instance of the gratitude and modesty of the chivalry, we give the following:

A gentleman in Washington city, having obtained a promise of the release from prison of his rebel nephew, as soon as the young man should take the oath of allegiance, apprised the [illegible] mother of the youth of his success; in reply to which he received from the grateful lady a note, in which she said: "I think it the least you might do for your brother's child to get him paroled and obtain for him a Government clerkship in Washington."

From New Westminster.

NEW WESTMINSTER, June 29.—Capt. Irving's new stern wheel steamer for Fraser river route was launched at Victoria on Monday.

An agent of the Hudson's Bay Company went up by the Reliance en route to Kamloops for the purpose of building a steamer to ply up and down Kamloops and Shuswap Lakes. The Government will send out a surveying party in a few days to lay out a trail connecting Shuswap Lake with the Columbia river.

[illegible] These ex-[illegible] would have all written letters denying any knowledge of the plot [illegible] assassinate the President. [illegible] of the conspirators has revealed [illegible] the fact that [illegible] Hon tables, as the Democrats [illegible] them, were in very intimate terms with nearly every member of the gang. Every one of [illegible] charges President Johnson with being the author of the murder. Here are [illegible] pretended burning [illegible]:

"How came Booth to address the Vice President of the United States in words of such familiarity as show an acquaintance, certainly if not intimacy with him? 'I do not wish to disturb you but would be glad to have an interview.' These are words of strange and mysterious import and are not to be lightly set aside in so great a matter as unmasking and [illegible]. [illegible] Is it impossible that [illegible] may have met Mr. Johnson in that lower circle they were [illegible] known to frequent, and thus to have formed an intimacy which a common vice begets? Andrew Johnson, let it be borne in mind, has been noted for many years past as an [illegible] frenzied aspirant for the Presidency. All the arts and appliances which the fruitful brain of the unscrupulous demagogue could invent and employ had been exhausted to attain this goal of his [illegible] ambition. After a struggle of years—and not until the States of the South including his own had separated themselves from all political connection with the North—did he reach the position of second civil officer of that Government. Then the prize, so long dazzling his vision, seemed within his grasp."

THE OREGON FARMER.

THE STATE FAIR IN OCTOBER.

Class III of the list of premiums embraces the various breeds of sheep and the premiums offered for the best. We cannot say that we entirely approve of the manner in which this class is arranged. In the list of premiums offered for sheep by the Agricultural Societies in some of the Eastern States, (which are now lying before us) we notice that premiums are offered, 1st, for the best long wooled sheep, embracing Cotswolds, Oxfords, New Leicesters and others—a large and distinct breed of animals—and which are arranged under one head. 2d, Middle wooled sheep, illustrated by the Southdowns. 3d, French Merinoes. 4th, Spanish Merinoes, and 5th, graded sheep, which are crosses of the several varieties of sheep, including natives. We notice no premiums for American Merinoes or Australian Merinoes. We presume that by American Merinoes, we are to understand crosses of the French and Spanish Merino on our common sheep. The Australian Merino is an importation from Australia, and probably is the Spanish Merino. In our opinion there ought to be separate sweepstakes of the long wools, the middle wools, the fine wools and the graded sheep—so that we can have the opinion of the judges which is the best variety of sheep in the classes named. That is what the public wants to know, so as to give valuable information to our farmers.

No. 9 of Class III, "Graded sheep for wool and mutton," will be likely to show how breeds of sheep can be crossed to attain the best animal for wool and mutton. It is important for farmers to learn this fact. It is not probable, however, that the best sheep for mutton will produce the finest or highest priced wool. No. 10 offers liberal premiums for first and second best [illegible] bucks for wool and mutton of any breed, for which premiums bucks of all breeds can compete.

The raising of sheep for wool and for mutton is now becoming an important interest with our farmers. Our climate and our grasses are well adapted to raising sheep. Disease rarely affects them, and the wild and cultivated herbage keeps them in good condition—often making them very fat.

Much time cannot pass before we have a regular market for wool, the prices based upon eastern prices, adding the cost of transporting it to that market.

We recollect of hearing an old farmer of our State once say, that the keeping of his sixty sheep in summer cost only care, and that five dollars would pay their feed for winter. But such slight expense for winter keeping cannot, in our changeful winters, be relied upon, and besides, sheep well wintered give healthier lambs, better wool and receive far better market and higher prices.

The premiums offered are liberal, and we trust will induce our farmers to bring their best sheep, of the varieties named, to the State Fair—the great gala season of the farmers of Oregon.

NOTE.—In order to a fair understanding of the value of the different breeds of sheep, we would request that this committee on this class be furnished with statements as follows: The weight of each sheep of the long wooled variety at the time of exhibition, and the weight of the fleece taken from the same animal in the spring. It should also be stated whether the wool was washed or unwashed. The same facts should be stated in regard to the middle wooled sheep, and also of the fine wooled—giving in every case the name of the variety of sheep. The statements would be valuable to the wool growers of our State—enabling them to form an approximate opinion of the relative value, to farmers, of the different varieties of sheep now in Oregon.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, June 30th, 1865.

We have nothing new to report in point of commercial or financial transactions for the week past.

The markets generally are drooping. Flour especially has decreased in value. Holders of choice brands are firm in their demands for $12 ℔ bbl, while ordinary and country brands are going at from $10 down to $7@$8 ℔ bbl. We hear of one lot jobbing at $7 and one other transaction from first hands at $6 50, being common lots purchased from wagons.

Grain quotations are nominally the same as for last week. There is very little offering, and the market may be considered quite unsteady. The appearance of matters in the California market has a tendency to cause a decline in prices here.

Bacon is also lower. Sales are noted at prices ranging from 22 to 24 cents ℔ lb. Receipts are light.

There is no particular inquiry for domestic produce of any kind.

Three vessels only have cleared since our last review with cargo valued in the aggregate at $20 [illegible], although the steamship carried in addition $265 500 in treasure, making—as the actual export of the week—$28[illegible] [illegible]. There are no vessels in port, but two steamers and two barks are on the way from San Francisco, and may soon be expected.

Wool is coming into market slowly for the past few days, although at the beginning of the week it was arriving freely. There will be a large amount for shipment by the Moses Taylor, which will [illegible] very likely [illegible] so as to leave on Wednesday next. Prices during the week have been from 18 to 20 cents ℔ lb.

Farmers are turning their attention to the subject of Wool growing to a great extent. They find that the expense of hauling a [illegible] of Wool to market, even for a distance of [illegible] miles, when the driver [illegible] camps and cooks his own food and baits his team by the road side, is but a trifle; and that they can haul with a team of oxen or horses from five to [illegible] dollars worth of this commodity, while the same weight of grain or other produce would scarcely command [illegible] $100, and rarely over $200.

Wool raising is to be made a profitable business among the farmers [illegible] at the present day, and still a [illegible] [illegible] from [illegible] [illegible] Wool [illegible] minority.

Trade generally is [illegible] to make [illegible] Wholesale prices:

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus, CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

LILLIE'S LOCK OPENED

In One Minute.

NEW YORK, September 2, 1864.

F. TILMAN, Esq., 318 Battery street,
Between Commercial and Clay, San Francisco:

DEAR SIR: WE NOTICE AN ADvertisement in your daily papers respecting the "security" of the Lillie lock. We are aware that you well understand this lock, and, of course, will not allow yourself to be annoyed by such representations. We have just sent for one of our men at the factory, and he, in our presence, [illegible] the Lillie first safe lock after it had been locked and the combination turned on,

By One Blow of the Hammer

Against the knob on the outside, and thereby breaking the [illegible] inside.

The whole time occupied in opening the lock was about ONE MINUTE. We send you this that your friends may not be deceived by false representations, etc.

Respectfully, etc.,
A. F. TILTON,
WM. McFARLAND.

Any parties desirous of seeing the above mentioned lock, its insecurity and easy mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

MANCHESTER, March 26, 1864.

Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND,
Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.:

Gentlemen:—From representations made by Mr. Lillie I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 15th of February last a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and ours with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenzie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found safe

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc.—their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was no other of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire-fating, however, no better than ours.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
(Signed) GEO. L. CHESBORO & CO.

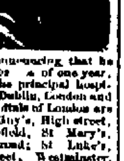
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] fully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Mary's, Camb Place, Pad.; Lock, Harrow road; St. Luke's, Old street; University, Gower street; Westminster, Broad Sanctuary; Charing Cross, Agar street, Strand; London, Whitechapel road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn road; King's College, Portugal street.

DOCTOR GIBBON has also visited Doctors Acton of London, Parker of Birmingham, England, and Ricord of Paris; who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world, and whose authority is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Dis.—

DOCTOR GIBBON has obtained from them their new mode of treatment which cannot be surpassed.

DOCTOR GIBBON has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with new facilities for the alleviation of [illegible] suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 617 Kearney street, near Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

Prevention Better than Cure.

The newly Invented Patent French Safe, a sure Preventive against Diseases and Pregnancy, sent by mail. Price $2. Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 617 Kearney St., near Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box 252.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it; but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to distinguish is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Doctor Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, [illegible] letters, etc. Doctor Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat [illegible] [illegible].

Consultations FREE. [illegible]
